I was looking for a course that would help me strategize different ways of handling people with different personality types – this course looked like exactly what I was looking for!

Through this course, I learned how to better lead people based on their strengths as determined by the 4QL principles. The facilitator, Graeme, was really good at keeping everyone interested and engaged.

Studying with IMNZ has helped me streamline the process of how much control to give and retain when assigning tasks.

I would recommend IMNZ because they offer a great range of course and the facilitators really know their stuff and are top-notch.
